Our US Tax Team

In Singapore, the 3 main Moore's Rowland entities are –

- Our audit practice is managed under MRI Moore's Rowland LLP, Chartered Accountants and Public Accountants approved by the governing body - the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants.
- Moore's Rowland Solutions Pte Ltd which is a business consulting firm focused on enduring business value through people and for people - <http://mooresrowland.sg/index.html>
- Hayden T Joseph CPA LLP which works on International Tax in general, and United States International Tax in particular.

We would like to begin by confirming four points -

- If you are US exposed (citizen, green card or substantial presence), you are usually taxed on your worldwide income;
- These tax obligations do not stop because you reside outside of the US;
- Even if your earnings are under the threshold of the foreign earned income exclusion, and you reside outside of the US, you may still have to file US tax returns;
- Since the early 1970s, US persons have been obligated to report any foreign financial assets once the maximum aggregate balance exceeds a certain threshold.

Our expertise includes:

Compliance

Individual clients come to us with complex, multi-jurisdiction tax issues related to cross-border employment and investment opportunities. We prepare U.S. federal and state income tax returns for U.S. expatriates, foreign nationals and individuals with international financial interests.

Tax Consulting

Our international tax consulting expertise includes analysis of tax treaties, sourcing of income, and reporting of foreign bank accounts, as well as foreign corporations, partnerships and trusts. As consultants, we help individual clients develop cost-effective strategies, propose solutions and prepare individual tax projections. We also work closely with our clients' attorneys and other advisors to provide comprehensive advice.

MOORES ROWLAND ASIA PACIFIC

With economies rather stagnating in much of the western world outside the US, a new dawn has broken in Asia raising fresh hopes that having learned the bitter lessons of fiscal prudence the region is finally ready to fulfill its promise to make this century 'the Asian century'. True there is much to do, but the introduction of major political and economic reforms across the region augurs well for the future, particularly in the medium term, especially as a new more vibrant leadership has come to the fore. That is not to say everything will be plain sailing, of course, but the prospects for a prosperous journey look fair indeed. To help guide you along the way, the Moore's Rowland firms across Asia combine global knowledge and best practices with core Asian values to produce seasoned yet individually tailored courses of action to best suit your needs.

Who we are

The earliest names on the Moore's Rowland family tree are Edward Moore and Albert Goodman, both of whom began their independent UK practices in 1866. It was to be over a century, however, before the various UK firms finally coalesced to form Moore's & Rowland, which shortly thereafter became Moore's Rowland.

With the onset of globalization shredding national boundaries, it was logical for Moore's Rowland International to come into being in 1985. This association of independent accountancy firms included many regional firms from the UK still operating under the name, bound together by common values with like-minded firms overseas.

Moore's Rowland International continued to strengthen with major US firm Plante Moran joining in 1988, and BKD becoming a part of the international association the following year. Expansion was to continue and on 1 January 2007, Praxity AISBL was born as a new global alliance of independent firms formed in the main from former Moore's Rowland International and Mazars firms.

The name of Moore's Rowland is not lost, however. Far from it, for a number of like-minded independent firms in Asia are still bound by those shared ideals and values, and many still bear the name Moore's Rowland: □ Moore's Rowland Beijing, China □ Thomas Lee & Partners Ltd, Hong Kong □ APMH & Associates, India □ RR Bajaj CPA, India □ Moore's Rowland Indonesia, Jakarta & Bali, Indonesia □ Solusi Sumber Daya, Jakarta, Indonesia □ LSAF Global Consulting, Jakarta, Indonesia □ Nagamine & Mishima, Tokyo, Japan □ MRI Kuching & Kota Kinabalu, Malaysia □ Raki CS Tan & Ramanan, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia □ Sison Corillo Parone & Co, Manila, Philippines □ MRI Moore's Rowland LLP, Singapore □ Hayden T.
